

Central Illinois Corvette Club
Work Incentive Program

The Central Illinois Corvette Club (CICC) Worker Incentive Program is to encourage club members and their significant other (spouse/partner) to “work” in aiding CICC in sanctioned and non-sanctioned events for the benefit of CICC and its designated charity endeavors and reward those workers for their efforts.

“Work” being an extra effort put forth by a member or spouse/partner for the positive progression of CICC in achieving its goals.

How the program works: An individual must accumulate 200 points from the Points Menu. . This menu consists of working on major CICC club events and/or taking on tasks that benefit CICC and its main charity, Spina Bifida. All events are CICC and the events of Spina Bifida under Gary Martin, only. This program is strictly voluntary; you are not required to participate. To be eligible for the prize, you must participate and collect the total amount of points in the current calendar year.
